Announcement of Marriage Law Postal Survey Results

The Australian Statistician, David W Kalisch, will release the results of the Australian Marriage Law Postal Survey at a media conference at 10am on Wednesday, 15 November 2017.

Arrangements have been made for the media conference to be broadcast live on major television networks.

Following the media conference, the detailed results and quality report will be published on the Australian Marriage Law Postal Survey website.

Templates for use for the release of the survey participation and response results show the standard table layout for the statistical information that will be available as part of the survey.

The Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) requests that journalists attending the news conference provide appropriate accreditation.
